INTRODUCTORY.

For the past fifteen years Ebel's Directory has made its appearance regularly in Terre Haute. To the credit of the city, each issue has been an improvement over its predecessor. The city has made great strides since our first issue, adding more than fifteen thousand people to her population. Our aim has been to keep the Directory to the front, and show up the city in the best manner possible. We think we have succeeded. A glance at our file of directories of other cities twice the size of Terre Haute, shows our work to be far ahead of theirs. There are not half a dozen cities in the United States that have their directories indexed, or that contain the street number directory, the latter alone being worth the price of the book.

The improvements added from year to year have been made possible by the liberal patronage of the business men who always have the welfare of the city at heart, and advertise in the Directory. A first-class Directory could not be issued for the price of the book alone, and such a work advertises the city, and benefits the advertiser.

According to the census of 1890, Terre Haute had a population of 30,217, while the Directory of that year contained 15,519 names, which if multiplied by only two, would give a larger population than the census shows. Some Directory publishers estimate the population by multiplying the number of names by two and one-half, some by two and three-quarters, and even by three. A fair estimate is made by multiplying by two and one-quarter. This issue of the Directory (1894) contains 18,069 names, which on the above basis would give us a population of 40,655. A few of these are beyond the city limits proper. Making a reasonable deduction on this account, we may safely estimate our population at the present time to be 38,000.

We desire to call attention especially to our Classified Business Directory, and to our Street Number Directory. The latter contains the names of married women as well as the names of their husbands, and will be found very useful to the business men of the city. It also designates owners of property, and locates business houses.

In fulfillment of our promise to advertisers, the Directory will be placed in all hotels within a radius of sixty miles from the city, and to the people of the surrounding towns who desire the address of business men in the city, the Classified Business Directory will be a great benefit.

To our patrons we desire to return our thanks, and wish them the success their liberal patronage merits. We remain,

Your Obedient Servants,

EBEL & BYERS, Publishers.

DIRECTORY BORROWERS

WE RECEIVE many complaints from our patrons to the effect that they are bothered so much by BORROWERS. These parties are not the private citizen nor the stranger in the city, who step in, looks at the Directory and goes out, but merchants, business and professional men, who need a Directory every day of the year, yet who are too close-listed to subscribe for one.

These same individuals are the ones that borrow your Directory "just for a minute," which, in the majority of cases, means a day or perhaps a week, unless you remember that they have it and send for it.

These same borrowers will tell the Directory canvasser that he has "no use for a Directory," that he "knows everybody," and vice versa, "everybody knows him.

P. H. Monninger,

Grower and Dealer in All Kinds of

NATIVE

WINES

Vineyard at Terre Haute, Indiana.

ESTABLISHED 1863.

I have now a grape which is of foreign origin, a white Traminer—it is sweet and delicious, with an excellent flavor. I have tried it for the last nine years in all kinds of weather—cold, hot, dry and wet—did not freeze at 25 degrees below zero, nor rot in the dampest weather, while all others had rotted badly, and no protection given whatever. In fact it is the plant for our climate, for it is useless to plant anything that won't stand the climate. These grape-vines I have for sale this fall. Buy them and you will never regret it. Information will be given for planting, cultivating, pruning, etc.

To those wishing to buy a PURE GRAPE WINE, I will say that I have the following wines—from one to eighteen years old—for sale, namely:

CATAWBA, REISLINGS, CLARET, PORT, SHERRY, MADEIRA, SWEET AND DRY.

Also one of the most celebrated pure anti-ferment grape juices—a temperance drink—that heretofore never was known. It is as sweet and delicious as any ripe grape ever grown; will never ferment in warm or cold weather; does not intoxicate, and contains no foreign ingredient. It will cure dyspepsia, create an appetite and keep up your health. It can be analyzed by any chemist as to its purity. TRY IT and be convinced.

I will sell all the above in cases—twelve bottles to the case, five bottles to the gallon. Sold also by the keg, half-barrel and barrel.

For goods and prices in my line, address

TERRE HAUTE OF TO-DAY.

The people who first settled at Terre Haute had an eye for beauty, and with a whole territory to choose from, they chose the best, says a writer of Terre Haute History. Our grandfathers moved their hearthstones three times before they were suited; having first camped around Fort Harrison, where brave old Zach. Taylor fought the Indians. Although the scene was charming and the land rich as Egypt, some of them dropped down the river five or six miles to another fine spot, since known to the ancient settler as "Old Terry Hut," but the wise men settled down on a high rolling prairie, a few miles long and a few miles wide, washed on one side by the Wabash river and circled on the other by a range of grove-covered bluffs—and here we are. They never moved again, and nothing but death could induce the old settlers to leave Terre Haute, and their children and grand-children are just like them.

Terre Haute is the third city of Indiana in point of population; the second from a commercial standpoint. Her geographical position is such as to give her a tributary territory of unsurpassed richness and variety of products. Coal, Stone, Oil, Iron, Glass, Sand, Clay, etc., in unlimited quantities are at her very door. Nine railroads reach out to markets only limited by the desire of the seller. Her people are abreast of the times, and while Terre Haute has never had a boom, her advance has been steady and strong. Her merchants and manufacturers have ever touched shoulders in their march to the conquest of the world's trade. The foremost wave of progress carries her products and they are known in every part of the world where man has a desire for better things and has something to exchange.

The large and closely situated coal field makes it possible to deliver coal to factory at 50 cents per ton, and fuel, one of the largest factors in the cost of production, is a bagatelle.

Terre Haute grinds up each day 38,000 bushels of grain.

Its large and increasing jobbing trade is a source of great pride.

Its manufacture of iron products consists of Blast Furnace, Rolling Mills, Tools, Stoves, Machinery, etc.

Its out put of Spirits and Highwines is two-fifths of the entire production of the United States.

The Majestic Distillery with a capacity of 10,000 bushels per day, being the largest in the world by 4,000 bushels.

Twenty-two thousand head of cattle can be fed by the distilleries.

It has the largest Brewery in the State.

It has the largest Hominy and Corn-grinding Mill in the world.

Its ceaseless flowing Oil Wells.

Its fine clay for the manufacture of Stoneware, Sewer Pipe, Hollow and Paving Brick.

Its Paint Ore.

Its Car Works with capacity for turning out twenty-five complete cars per day. Its Wheel Works, Paper Mills.

The shops of the Vandalia line and other industries mark its importance as a business center.

The tonnage in and out of Terre Haute carried by the different railroads is represented by 2,500,000 tons.

Terre Haute's celebrated 2-01¼ track, and its giving $94,000 in purses and stakes for a single meeting, makes it recognized as the head center for the racing of light harness horses.

Terre Haute has miles of paved streets that are the pride of all.

The city schools are first-class, and our educational advantages are far and away above the average.

The city spends $110,000 a year on its public schools which are superior and have at the head the largest high school in the State housed in a very imposing building with room for 650 scholars. The system maintains the free public library with 12,000 volumes.

The State Normal School, in which $250,000 is invested, is a magnificent building whose stately tower commands a magnificent view of the city. It has on an average about 1,300 enrollment, students from all over the country being in attendance.

The population of Terre Haute is 38,000 at a conservative estimate, with a valuation of $25,000,000.

We have a fine system of railroads, including the Big Four, three divisions of the Vandalia, the C. & E. I., the E. & T. H. and the E. & I.

Churches of all denominations and creeds find large memberships here.

We have a fine system of electric railway and two elegant parks.

In short, Terre Haute is foremost among Indiana cities for a home where all the advantages of a large city are to be had with the more agreeable surroundings of the smaller and less preten-

TERRE HAUTE, IND.
COMPILED AND PUBLISHED BY CHAS O. EBEL & CO.
1896.

INTRODUCTORY.

Volume Twenty-six of the Terre Haute City Directory is herewith presented to our patrons. The last twelve issues of the twenty-six have been published by us.

The new features added several years ago, the indexing and Street Number Resident Directory, have been continued in this issue, although entailing a large extra expense. At the present time these features are only found in works issued by us. Publishers in other cities have discontinued the Street Number Directory as a needless expense, and one that is appreciated by only a few.

Nineteen thousand four hundred and seven names will be found in this issue, which, multiplied by 2½, makes our population 43,616. This, including the suburbs, will be found to be very nearly correct. The largest number of names commence with S—2,139; followed closely by M, 1,917; B, 1,860; H, 1,695; C, 1,397, and W, 1,344. Residents' names commencing with the above six letters comprise over half our population. Q is the smallest letter, 19, while X is entirely missing. The Smith family still lead with 231 spelled plain Smith, and 38 spelled otherwise, total 269. The Browns (and Braun) are next with 153, followed closely by the Miller and Davis family, each having 148 and 144 respectively. The renowned family of Jones has been out-stripped and must be dropped from the firm of Smith, Brown and Jones, as they number only 79.

Terre Haute has shown a steady and healthy growth, although the hard times have been felt very severely. While a large number of residences and business houses have been erected within the past few years, all are occupied. A large number of improvements are being contemplated, including a new Opera House, new business blocks, street paving, sewers, etc.

As heretofore, for the benefit of our advertisers, we will place a copy of this work in every hotel within a radius of sixty miles of Terre Haute.

Thanking the public for their patronage, and hoping a continuance of same, we remain,

Very Truly,

CHAS. O. EBEL & CO.

DIRECTORY BORROWERS.

WE RECEIVE many complaints from our patrons to the effect that they are bothered so much by BORROWERS. These parties are not the private citizen nor the stranger in the city, who step in, looks at the Directory and goes out, but merchants, business and professional men, who need a Directory every day of the year, yet who are too close-fisted to subscribe for one.

These same individuals are the ones that borrow your Directory "just for a minute," which, in the majority of cases, means a day or perhaps a week, unless you remember that they have it and send for it.

These same borrowers will tell the Directory canvasser that he has "no use for a Directory," that he "knows everybody," and vice versa, "everybody knows him."

P. H. Monninger,

Grower and Dealer in All Kinds of

NATIVE WINES

Vineyard at Terre Haute, Indiana.

ESTABLISHED 1803.

I have now a grape which is of foreign origin, a white Traminer—it is sweet and delicious, with an excellent flavor. I have tried it for the last ten years in all kinds of weather—cold, hot, dry and wet—did not freeze at 25 degrees below zero, nor rot in the dampest weather, while all others had rotted badly, and no protection given whatever. In fact it is the plant for our climate, for it is useless to plant anything that won't stand the climate. These grape-vines I have for sale this fall. Buy them and you will never regret it. Information will be given for planting, cultivating, pruning, etc.

To those wishing to buy a PURE GRAPE WINE, I will say that I have the following wines—from one to twenty years old—for sale, namely:

Catawba, Reislings, Claret, Port, Sherry, Madeira,

SWEET AND DRY.

Also one of the most celebrated pure anti-ferment grape juices—a temperance drink—that heretofore never was known. It is as sweet and delicious as any ripe grape ever grown; will never ferment in warm or cold weather; does not intoxicate, and contains no foreign ingredient. It will cure dyspepsia, create an appetite and keep up your health. It can be analyzed by any chemist as to its purity. TRY IT and be convinced.

I will sell all the above in cases—twelve bottles to the case, five bottles to the gallon. Sold also by the keg, half-barrel and barrel.

For goods and prices in my line, address

W. C. Isbell, Prest.

Terre Haute, Ind

THE Terre Haute Commercial College has been in operation for nineteen years under the successful management of the present proprietor and principal, W. C. Isbell. The number of full scholarships issued is upwards of ten thousand.

No college in the land has a better record; few, if any, can equal it.

Many thousand young men and women attribute their success to the training they received at the Terre Haute Commercial College.

We can make you a good penman.
We can make you a good correspondent.
We can make you a good stenographer.
We can make you a good mathematician.
We can make you a good accountant.

We can make you good in all clerical work, fitting you to fill an honorable and lucrative position in life.

This we can do for you, if you will attend the Terre Haute Commercial College and do your duty as a student.

The many years of experience and the success of many thousands of young people justify us in saying that we can guarantee entire satisfaction.

See the Terre Haute Commercial College BLUE BOOK which contains convincing evidence from living witnesses, and all particulars. Sent free on application.
